

ALL SAINTS' ACADEMY
PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE
2010-2011

All Saints' Academy uses photographs of students in various school publications for promotional and publicity purposes. School publications include but are not limited to: advertisements (internal and external), posters, Accolades (school magazine), electronic media, postcards, yearbook and the website. For privacy purposes, children's photographs are never listed on the school website with their full names. All Saints' Academy uses a password protected portion of the website to post students images. Only parents, Board of Trustees members, faculty, staff and students at ASA are given a password. The password changes each year to ensure ultimate security and care in regards to privacy. Students' photos will continue to be posted to this password protected portion of www.allsaintsacademy.com, and their full names will not be included. This release provides or denies permission to use your child's photo in all other publications listed above. Once signed, the photography release remains valid for as long as the child is enrolled at All Saints' Academy.
